

The Genie Who Traveled To The Playground

by
Little Penny

 Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh

Once upon a time a genie was worried. He was worried that he could not find anyone to share his three wishes with from his magic lamp.

The worried genie rubbed the lamp and traveled to another part of the magic forest. He was looking for someone to share his lamp with. The worried genie rubbed the lamp and flew out.

Still no luck so the worried genie rubbed the lamp and flew again.

The genie traveled next to the hot hot desert and looked again. Still no luck!

The genie even went under the sea looking for someone, but still no luck

The genie looked again and now he found three children playing. He thought to himself, yes I have found someone.

The genie placed the lamp under the blue horse and then he vanished.

They found the lamp. The girl waved the lamp and thought that a genie would come out of it. The others told her she had to rub it.

The girl rubbed the lamp and a genie flew out. You may each ask for one wish. The genie cheered.

The first said, "I want to find buried treasure on the playground," and he did. The red haired girl said, "I would like a cupcake."

Her wish was granted, she got a cupecake. The princess ate the cake in one delicious gulp.

The last girl rubbed the lamp and asked for three more wishes, and she got them. The children were happy that their wishes came true.