Rescued The Trapped

Once upon a time a monkey and a zebra traveled to the moon. There was nothing there so they built a tower.

One day the monkey went on a walk and the zebra was tired so he went to sleep.

When the monkey came back he saw that the door was locked and you could only unlock it with the key but he did not have a key.

Zebra woke up and Monkey told him to jump. But there was one problem, Zebra was afraid of heights.

"I have an idea!" said Monkey.

"I brought a bed you could jump and land on that!"

Zebra jumped and landed safely on the bed.
